As We Reflect on Christ’s Baptism, we are reminded of our own baptism.

“Baptism is communion with the One who conquered death and holds in his hand the keys of life. Belonging to this circle, to God’s family, means being in communion with Christ, who is life and gives eternal love beyond death. Thanks be to God, who has redeemed us from our sins and given us eternal life through Jesus Christ.”

~ Pope Benedict XVI

MEN'S DAY OF RENEWAL

The 2026 Diocesan Men's Day of Renewal will be held on Saturday, March 7, 2026, at St. Stephen Catholic Church, Caldwell. This Lenten retreat invites men of the Diocese of Steubenville to reflect on the ongoing call to conversion and spiritual growth in our journey with Christ. The day will feature personal testimonies from Fr. Bradley Greer and Fr. Tim Shannon, who will share how the Eucharist has been central to their own conversions and priestly lives, offering practical insights for living and spreading the Faith in our families, parishes, workplaces, and communities.

BORN TO LOVE AGAIN

Why did Jesus submit to John's baptism? This cleansing in the waters of the Jordan River was a baptism of repentance (Matthew 3:11). But Jesus was the Son of God—he didn't need to repent! That's why John said to Jesus, "I need to be baptized by you, and yet you are coming to me?" (3:14). John did not live long enough to witness Jesus' death and resurrection. But if he had heard Jesus pray, "Father, forgive them," from the cross, John would have witnessed firsthand the full significance of Jesus' baptism. Jesus was baptized, not for his own sins, but for ours and those of the whole world. On the cross, Jesus, the sinless One, would take on the sin of all humanity. As Pope Benedict XVI wrote, when Jesus was baptized, he "loaded the burden of all mankind's guilt upon his shoulders: he bore it down into the depths of the Jordan. He inaugurated his public activity by stepping into the place of sinners. . . . The Baptism is an acceptance of death for the sins of humanity" (Jesus of Nazareth, p. 18). That's why Jesus told John that his baptism would "fulfill all righteousness" (Matthew 3:15). Through Jesus' death and resurrection, we sinners would be made righteous. Jesus stood with sinners like us along the banks of the Jordan and descended into the waters, just as they had. Then, on the cross, he took on every one of our sins—and put them to death, once and for all. Today, then, is a day to thank the Lord for your own Baptism. Through this great sacrament, you were joined to Jesus in his death and resurrection. You were freed from the burden of guilt that Jesus loaded on his own shoulders. You were cleansed of sin and made righteous. And just as the Father said to Jesus, so he says to you: "You are my beloved child" (see Matthew 3:17). May he forever be praised!
